

TYPES OF SENTENCES

EXERCISE 1

Ans

State what kind of sentence is each of the following:
Example: Oh, that is excellent! Exclamatory sentence.
a) Please sit down
b) Where is your house?
c) I have a pink frock
d) My God! Those are some wonderful decorations
e) We live in Mumbai
EXERCISE 2
Rearrange the jumbled words to make meaningful sentences and state their type.
The teacher may remind the students that they should use the correct punctuation marks while rearranging the words.
Example: - speak I English can fluently.
I can speak English fluently. Declarative sentence.
a) good friends are we
b) is which address yours?
c) house their on is the road main.
d) down sit.
e) know I secret the Ah!
EXERCISE 3
Choose the most appropriate option and write the correct answer in the space provided: -
1. I went to my aunt's house yesterday.
a) Interrogative.
b) Exclamatoryc) Declarative.
d) Imperative.

2. How beautiful this city is! a) Imperative. b) Declarative. c) Interrogative. d) Exclamatory. Ans_____ 3. Bring me a glass of water. ______. a) Exclamatory. b) Imperative. c) Declarative. d) Interrogative. Ans _____ 4. Who built the Taj Mahal? a) Interrogative. b) Declarative. c) Exclamatory. d) Imperative.

Ans_____

ANSWER KEY.

EXERCISE 1

- a) Imperative
- b) Interrogative
- c) Declarative
- d) Exclamatory
- e) Declarative

EXERCISE 2

- a) We are good friends. Declarative.
- b) Which is your address? Interrogative
- c) Their house is on the main road. Declarative.
- d) Sit down. Imperative
- e) Ah! I know the secret. Exclamatory

EXERCISE 3

- a) Declarative
- b) Exclamatory
- c) Imperative
- d) Interrogative