

Worksheet Apply Literary Devices

I. Convert the following sentences using suitable metaphors from the options given below:

(Couch potato, nightingale, icing on the cake, lions, busy bee)

- A. Mother had made biryani and also my favorite Gulab jamun. This was really an _____.
- B. She is very lazy. She is a _____.
- C. My aunt is very active at home and in society. She is a _____.
- D. Lata Mangeshkar was a great singer. She was called the _____ of India.
- E. Indian soldiers won the war. Our _____ drove the enemy troops away.

II. Picture of Market Scene

Worksheet Apply Literary Devices

Write 5-6 sentences describing the above picture using the literary devices learnt - metaphor and onomatopoeia.

III. Compose a simple poem using the leads given below using your imagination:

Trees - green - fruits - roots - giver of flowers - friend of ours - tall - for all

OR

Colours around - green tree - fly free - blue sky - rainbow high - brown-frown

Alternatively students may compose their own poem on any topic with a rhyme scheme (mention the rhyme scheme).

Worksheet Apply Literary Devices

Suggested Answers:

I. Complete the following sentences using suitable metaphors from the options given below:

(couch potato, nightingale, icing on the cake, lions, busy bee)

- Mother had made biryani and also my favourite gulab jamun. This was really an icing on the cake
- She is very lazy. She is a couch potato.
- My aunt is very active at home and in society. She is a busy bee.
- Lata Mangeshkar was a great singer. She was called the nightingale of India.
- Indian soldiers won the war. Our lions drove the enemy troops away.

II. Write 5-6 sentences describing the above picture using the literary devices learnt - metaphor and onomatopoeia.

- The market place is buzzing with activity.
- The coins went jingling in the pocket of the hawker as he raised his arm and said, "Hey! Hey! Here comes the sugarcane juice, swishing through the machine."
- The cars and buses went, "Honk! Honk!" but the sound fell on deaf ears.
- The market place is jam packed; there is no place to breathe.
- Babies cry, "Wha!Wha!" Mothers go, "Shush! Shush!"
- Reena literally bought the whole market.
- The sale just ended, so we missed the bus.

III. Compose a simple poem using the leads given below using your imagination:

Sample poem using leads:

Trees - been - green - fruits - roots - giver of flowers - friend of ours - tall - for all

*Trees, trees forever have you been, making the environment green.
You shower nuts and fruits,
holding the soil by your roots,
You bloom and blossom with flowers,
O wonderful friends of ours!
You stand so handsome and tall,
for the benefit of one and all!*

Worksheet Apply Literary Devices

Sri Sathya Sai Vidya Vahini

Sri Sathya Sai Vidya Vahini

Sri Sathya Sai Vidya Vahini

Sri Sathya Sai Vidya Vahini

Image Source / URL

Source Link
Market: SSSVV Image Gallery Search Keyword < Market, Shop.